

2014 Ladies' Tour & Lunch

Historic Downtown San Antonio

Friday, October 24, 2014 • 8:15 am - 4:30 pm

Total Cost: $45/person
(Includes tax and gratuity)

Reservations must be paid in full and received by October 20, 2014
(No children under the age of 12)

Tour Details

PROFESSIONAL TOUR GUIDE - MARTHA WOOD

See the heart of the Alamo City with a historic tour of Downtown San Antonio by professional tour guide Martha Wood. Discover amazing history of San Antonio's mission sites as well as the King Williams Historical District with a visit to the Guenther House and its Mill Store. Stop by the Alamo as you make your way to some free time on the River Walk for lunch and shopping. Visit the "Soul of the City," San Fernando Cathedral followed by a visit to the Mexican Market, "El Mercado" – the largest Mexican Market outside of Mexico. Return to the National Shooting Complex in time for shoot-offs after experiencing what San Antonio is all about.

Name: _____

Number of Tickets: _____ Total Cost: $ _____

Type of Payment: ☐ Cash ☐ Check ☐ Visa ☐ MC ☐ Discover ☐ AmEx

Credit Card: _____ Exp.: _____ CVC: _____

Signature: _____ Date: _____

*For more information, please contact Lori Hartmann at NSCA Headquarters:
5931 Roff Rd. San Antonio, TX 78253 (210) 688-3371, ext. 116
lhartmann@nssa-nsca.com*